

Dussen stars as South Africa dash Afghanistan's hopes

Ahmedabad, Nov 11: Rassie van der Dussen's fighting knock helped South Africa overcome the Afghanistan challenge in Ahmedabad at the ICC Men's Cricket World Cup 2023.

The second innings of the game was fiercely contested between the Afghanistan bowlers and the South Africa batters, with the latter coming out on top at the very end.

Rassie van der Dussen (76*) starred for South Africa with a splendid innings, whereas old hands Rashid Khan and Mohammad Nabi were the stars for Afghanistan. South Africa replied with 247 for five in response to Afghanistan's 244 all out in 50 overs. Azmatullah Omarzai's fighting 97* helped Afghanistan finish strongly after South Africa had dominated for the majority of the innings.

Gerald Coetzee (4/44) and Keshav Maharaj (2/25) shined for the Proteas. With this defeat, Afghanistan bowed out of the World Cup.

The South Africa openers were among the runs from the very beginning. Quinton de Kock was particularly aggressive, hitting two fours and three sixes in the first Powerplay. Temba Bavuma experienced some issues with his hamstring but managed to stick around at the crease.

Afghanistan struck back early in the second Powerplay. Bavuma fell while trying to clear Mujeeb Ur Rahman past deep mid-wicket. Then in the 14th over, Mohammad Nabi trapped Quinton de Kock leg before wicket. While the on-field umpire didn't agree with that call, Afghanistan succeeded in getting a wicket after a review.

Rassie van der Dussen and Aiden Markram then took South Africa ahead with a steady stand. The duo hit a number of confident shots, even as the Proteas improved their scoring rate. However, Rashid's special spell got two important breakthroughs for his team.

He got rid of Markram (25) in the 24th over. The batter ended up pulling a catch towards the covers. A few overs later, the dangerous Heinrich Klaasen was cleaned up.

The set van der Dussen got decent support from David Miller, as the duo batted out the next few anxious deliveries, and then got back into the groove once more. Their stand helped blunt the impact of Afghanistan tweekers, even as the Proteas gradually moved towards their target.

However, Afghanistan got a timely breakthrough in the 38th over when Miller (24) pushed one back to Nabi. The Afghanistan spinners were able to stifle the scoring rate, and the South Africa chase depended predominantly on van der Dussen's stay at the crease. The batter managed to stave off the spin challenge, and along with Phehlukwayo (39*) helped South Africa to a five-wicket win.

A Spittin' Image..!

The doctor said to the new father, "You have a cute baby." "I bet you say that to all the new parents," smiled the proud daddy.

"No," he replied, "just to those whose babies really are good-looking."

"So what do you say to the others?"

I say, "He's the spittin' image of you."

I wonder whether they taught that to him in his medical college! With identical twins, it's easy to see that they are the "spittin' image" of each other. Actually, that term "spittin' image" stems from an old misunderstanding itself. Joel Chandler Harris, author of the Uncle Remus stories, explained that when an American slave seemed to be saying, "spittin' image," he or she was actually saying, "spirit and image," as, "He's the spittin' 'n' image of his daddy." It meant more than they merely looked alike. Spirit and image - alike, inside and out.

And what makes it even more interesting is the ancient truth from the monk Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153), who said, "What we love we shall grow to resemble." Or put another way, we become the spittin' 'n' image of that which we hold dear. We are shaped by that which we admire most, and by the people we love most.

It works like this: Those who admire success may become "the image of success." Those who admire ambition will, to even a casual observer, look ambitious, perhaps even driven. Those who admire and love the gentle saints of their faith will, more than likely, remind others of those same saints in their attitudes, words and actions.

Day by day, we become the spittin' 'n' image of the people we befriend, admire and love. I wonder who you are the spittin' image of? Are you the spittin' image of your good dad, or that wicked uncle of yours?

Whose life do you model yours on? Someone you admired no doubt, but who is it you admire?

Even as I write this I think of our children. Most of them model their lives round their parents. That's why you'll quite often find that an alcoholic had an alcoholic father. That a grumpy mother has grumpy sons and daughters.

I met a priest who stammered and he told me that his father stammered. "So what?" I asked, "Are you blaming him for your stammer?" "Not in the way you mean," he said kindly, "but when I was small my mother passed away and it was from my father I learnt to talk. So I stammer like him."

I am not sure how scientifically correct the priest was, but it's scary isn't it?

How we are, our children will be likewise. So even as we decide whom to model our lives by, also let us learn to live lives that are good, virtuous and honest, so that, when others see the spittin' image of you in your children, it will be a good spirit and clean image..!
