

Perfected scoop playing rubberball game: Surya

Bengaluru, Nov 8: India's 360-degree batsman Suryakumar Yadav said he perfected his trademark scoop shot while playing rubberball cricket.

"You got to understand what the bowler is going to bowl at that time, which is a little pre-determined at that moment. I practiced that stroke a lot when I used to play rubber-ball cricket. So, you got to be thinking what the bowler is thinking at that time and if the field is in, I just back myself to go there," he told Star Sports' show 'Follow the Blues.' To play scoop shots, it is also necessary to know the distance of the boundary behind the batsman and play it according to the pace of the ball, Suryakumar said.

"You got to know how long the boundary behind is. When I stand there, I feel it's just 60-65 meters and with the pace of the ball I just try and time it, take it on the sweet spot of the bat and if it hits, it just goes out there," he said.

Suryakumar has been one of India's star performers in this ICC Men's T20 World Cup. His performances in recent games has led him to gain the No. 1 spot in the ICC Men's T20I rankings.

He has also scored the most number of runs overall in T20Is for the year 2022. A truly 360-degree player, Suryakumar's form is going to be crucial if India want to win the ICC Men's T20 World Cup.

One of the highlights of India's game against Australia was Suryakumar's unorthodox stroke where he dispatched the ball over the boundary with a scoop shot, gaining him plaudits from Sunil Gavaskar who was on commentary at the time.

Suryakumar also spoke about how he handles pressure situations in matches and how he tries to score runs all around the ground.

"When I go into bat, I just try and look for a few boundaries or even if I don't get that, I just try and run as hard as possible between wickets. If you have to bat with Virat bhai then you have to run hard as well. But I try to do that, hit it in the gaps and run hard.

"But I know what strokes I need to play at that time. I try to play a lot of percentage cricket. My strokes are sweeps, over cover, and cuts, if I am succeeding in that, I just take the game ahead from there," he remarked.

Virat is Player of Month

India batsman Virat Kohli has been named the ICC Men's Player of the Month for October following some outstanding performances in T20 matches.

Zimbabwe's Sikandar Raza and South Africa's David Miller were the other nominees for the award along with Kohli, but the Indian batsman beat them to claim the title, reported ICC.

The 33-year-old batted in only four innings in October but he churned out three memorable knocks, including a magical 82 not out against Pakistan in the T20 World Cup.

Toughening Foreign Investors..!

"Make in India!" We cry zealously from our rooftops and WhatsApp groups as national leaders spend precious time and tax payers money going from country to country wooing their industrialists to open their factories, offices and make huge investments here in our country.

they find when they do arrive are narrow, pothole filled roads, filthy streets lined with un-lifted garbage, sprawling slums and pollution.

"Is there some sinister master plan you are following?" I asked a spokesman from the government,

"How is it you call these foreign companies, then give them such terrible facilities?"

"For their own good my friend, for their own good!" said the smiling spokesman who seemed to be all ready to go somewhere with his bags in tow, "We want to build them up in our country!"

"By giving them filth, rubbish and potholes?"

"It worked for you and me didn't it? Did you grow up in hygienic conditions and sanitized settings?"

"No," I admitted.

"There you are, I told you!"

"Told me what?" I asked, confused.

"It was the pot holes and dirt that shaped you!"

"Really?"

"It toughened you. You don't go about with a hanky to your nose like those Americans and Germans and Britishers. You don't get sick when you drink tap water and pick up a cough from vehicle fumes! See you even have dirt on the seat of your pants."

"That's because I slipped on some muck outside."

"You are a tough Indian, because of the very muck you slipped on today. Now do you understand?"

"That the muck, the pot holes and dirt shaped me?"

"Yes! And we want to do the same to these white collared, suited booted men and women in their swanky designer outfits, Mercedes Benzes and Cadillacs."

"You want to give them dirt and grime?"

"To make them world beaters like we Indians are. Guess what happens when their fancy cars hit the first pothole? They get a broken shoulder, ha, ha, ha."

"They then fly off to Shanghai or Hong Kong and open their companies there."

"We don't want those."

"You don't want them?"

"No they are the weak. We are looking for those who can fight our hurdles and obstacles and come out winners. We want to make men out of boys. Legends out of heroes! We want the world to think of our country as a 'strength and character building' destination! We have plans for other exercises!"

"Planning more potholes?"

"Let's go farther, no roads at all! No dustbins. Just garbage all over. No buildings, only slums!"

"It's already becoming like that," I whispered.

"Aha, our master plan is at work. Goodbye!"

"Where are you going?" I asked.

"Abroad," smiled the spokesman, "to woo those weak foreign investors to come to India..!"

Lanka suspends Danushka from all forms of cricket

Colombo, Nov 8: Sri Lanka Cricket (SLC) on Monday suspended national player Danushka Gunathilaka from 'all forms of cricket' with immediate effect after star batter was arrested and charged with sexual assault in Australia.

"The Executive Committee of Sri Lanka Cricket decided to suspend national player Danushka Gunathilaka from all forms of cricket with immediate effect and will not consider him for any selections after being informed that Gunathilaka was arrested and charged with sexual assault of a woman in Australia," SLC said in a statement.

"Furthermore, Sri Lanka Cricket will take the necessary steps to promptly carry out an inquiry into the alleged offence, and, upon conclusion of the aforementioned court case in Australia, steps will be taken to penalise the said player if found guilty," the statement added.

Danushka Gunathilaka has been arrested in Sydney for alleged sexual assault. He was arrested from a hotel on Sussex Street, Sydney in the early hours of Sunday morning.

According to Daily Mirror, Danushka Gunathilaka appeared by video link in handcuffs at a Sydney court on Monday, seeking bail after he was charged with four counts of sexual assault but it was refused by the Magistrate and will have to remain in custody.

According to media reports, this is not the first time that Danushka has faced disciplinary charges. He has faced at least three allegations of misconduct vis-a-vis females and one incident of misbehaviour where he along with two other players broke the bio bubble during a tour in England.

In 2018, the SLC slapped a six-match ban on the batsman for breaching player rules as police investigated the alleged rape of a Norwegian woman in his hotel room in Kollupitiya.

This incident in 2018 was just months after he faced another disciplinary inquiry in October 2017 where he missed a training session following late-night partying.
