Sukumaran's 'Globe Trotter', 'Thanthra': Thriller blends first look unveiled with humour, romance

The wait is over! Visionary filmmaker SS Rajamouli has revealed the powerful first look of Prithviraj Sukumaran as KUMBHA from his upcoming mega project, Globe Trotter, starring Mahesh Babu and Priyanka Chopra.

The poster introduces Prithviraj as a menacing, high-tech villain, ruthless, commanding, and unlike anything seen before. With his intense gaze and futuristic wheelchair, KUMBHA sets the tone for Rajamouli's next global-scale adventure.

Globe Trotter marks Rajamouli's most ambitious collaboration yet, bringing together Mahesh Babu and the Baahubali RRR director in a world-building spectacle that has fans buzzing.

The film's grand launch event is set for November 15 at Ramoji Film City Hyderabad, promising one of the biggest showcases in Indian cinema. Rajamouli revealed that the team is currently shooting the climax featuring all three leads and teased "multiple updates and surprises" in the days leading up to the event.

The unveiling of Prithviraj's look marks the start of Globe Trotter's promotional journey, and it already feels like the beginning of another cinematic milestone from SS Rajamouli.

Director: Vedhamani
Cast: Arbu Mayilsamy, Swaminathan, Sifra Tharun, Meena, Jack, Brindha Krishnan, Jyoti Sundaresan, etc.

Thanthra Blend of love, laughter, supernatural thriller that ambitiously weaves together humour, romance, action, mythology, and supernatural chills, keeping the audience engaged with its unexpected twists.

Antunayiyar, in his debut lead role, plays a carefree youngster who spends most of his time with his maternal uncle - much to the frustration of his father (Nizhalgal Ravi). Eventually, he moves in with his paternal uncles (Swaminathan and Jyoti Sundaresan), where he meets a young woman known to his cousin. Predictably, love blossoms - and the first half unfolds like a light-hearted romantic comedy filled with enjoyable situational humour.

However, the tone shifts dramatically in the second half, as a shocking flashback reveals dark secrets from the past that have devastating consequences in the present. This transition from light romance to intense mystery and horror forms the emotional core of the film.

Solomon & team share insights on 'Kumki 2'

The press meet of Kumki 2, produced by Taval Gada under Dr. Jayantilal Gada's Pen Studios, was held in Chennai.

Directed by Prabhu Solomon, the film stars newcomer Madhi, Sritha Rao, Andrews, Arjun Das, Akash, Sriram, Harish Peradi, and Thiruchelvan in key roles. Nivas K. Prasanna scores the music, with M. Sukumar handling cinematography.

Director Sharan said Madhi was fortunate to have a strong support system from his producers and mentors. He called Solomon's films deeply emotional and predicted Kumki 2 would continue that tradition of success.

Actor Madhi, making his debut, thanked Jayantilal Gada, Prabhu Solomon, and Lingusamy for giving him this opportunity.

Musical composer Nivas K. Prasanna called Kumki 2 special, saying he drew inspiration from the soul of the original Kumki.

Producer Dr. Jayantilal Gada thanked Lingusamy and Bose for entrusting him with Kumki 2. Calling Madhi "the Hrithik Roshan of Tamil cinema," he praised the original, the light of Tamil cinema now shines on Nivas K. Prasanna.

Actress Sritha Rao, Director Nithilan, Director Madhane Ashwin, Writer Brindha Sarathy were spoke at the press meet.

Kumki 2 is set for release on Children's Day, November 14, 2025, as an emotional nature-adventure drama celebrating the profound bond between humans and elephants.

Film Fest honours Bharathiraja's legacy

To celebrate the legendary contributions of veteran filmmaker Bharathiraja, whose realistic storytelling and social consciousness redefined Tamil cinema, the Department of Visual Communication at Vels University, in collaboration with Director Vetrimaaran's International Institute of Film and Culture (IIFC), has organised a five-day film festival from November 7 to 11, 2025.

The festival is a tribute to Bharathiraja's creative vision and his pivotal influence in shaping the artistic and cultural identity of Tamil cinema.

The inaugural ceremony was attended by former Chennai Mayor Saidai Duraisamy, actor Satyaraj, directors Ameer and Vetrimaaran, actress Rekha, and Dr. Ishani K. Ganesh, Founder Chancellor of Vels University and producer of Vels Film International.

'Parisu': Honours women's strength & patriotism

Direction : Kala Alluri
Cast: Jaanvika, Jai Bala, Kiran Pradeep, Aadukalam Naren, Manobala, Senarayan, Sachin, Anjali, Chinnu Ponnu, and Priyanka Chopra.

Blending patriotism, father-daughter bonding, and feminine resilience, "Parisu" stands out as a film that celebrates women with pride.

Produced under the banner of Sri Kala Creations, the story, screenplay, and direction have all been handled by Kala Alluri, marking her debut as a filmmaker after completing her studies in film technology.

The film features five melodious songs, each reflecting a key emotional phase in the story. The lyrics are penned by K. Rajendran.

"The story revolves around a retired army officer who dreams of seeing his daughter join the military. From a young age, he teaches her that serving the nation is life's greatest honor. The film portrays how the daughter fulfills her father's dream while facing and overcoming challenges - both as a woman and as a soldier. The core message of the film is: 'The true gift from a daughter to her father is her service to the nation.'"

As women continue to excel in all fields today, the film's heroine Jaanvika delivers a strong performance as a courageous army officer. She convincingly portrays three distinct stages - a college student, a farmer, and a soldier - showcasing her versatility. Notably, she has performed her action scenes without a stunt double.

'Aaramaley': Heartfelt exploration of modern love

Direction: Sarang Thiagu
Cast: Kishen Das, Harshath Khan, Shivathimika, VTV Ganesh and others.

Aaramaley produced by S. Vinod Kumar, is a charming Tamil romantic drama that gently unfolds the beauty, confusion, and contradictions of love. Director Sarang Thiagu crafts a film that feels both contemporary and nostalgic, balancing dreamy idealism with grounded emotion.

The story follows Ajith (Kishen Das), an incurable romantic who believes in destiny and fairy-tale love, and Anjali (Shivathimika Rajasekhar), a pragmatic young woman who sees love as a conscious choice rather than a coincidence. Their contrasting views spark a warm, introspective exploration of what love truly means in a modern world that often confuses passion with permanence.

Performances are the film's biggest strength. Kishen Das embodies the sincerity and vulnerability of a man chasing his idea of perfect love, while Shivathimika delivers a poised and emotionally grounded performance as Anjali. Their chemistry feels natural and relatable, especially in moments of quiet conflict. Harshath Khan lends depth to the narrative, and VTV Ganesh injects

'Autograph Reunion': Celebration of memories

Director Cheran's acclaimed 2004 film Autograph, which he wrote, directed, produced, and starred in, is set for a digital re-release on November 14. The globally remastered version comes with updated visuals and sound to suit today's audiences.

To mark the occasion, the team organized a special "Autograph Reunion" event in Chennai, attended by the film's cast and crew along with directors. Cheran honoured all the artists and technicians who worked on the film with mementos.

Musical composer Bharadwaj recalled that Autograph was one of his most cherished works, saying the songs still remain among his best. Director Pandiraj shared memories of assisting Cheran, revealing that many actors were initially considered for the lead role before Cheran himself decided to act.

Director Ammer described Autograph as a timeless reflection of human as a timeless reflection of "people's art," whose empathy and sincerity define his work.

Actress Sneha, who played a key role in the original, shared how Cheran supported her in her life and a difficult phase in her life and called him her best friend. She said Autograph remains her favourite among all her films.

Finally, Cheran said the re-release is not about commercial success but about reconnecting with audiences. "Life is about moving forward despite setbacks - that's what Autograph stands for," he said. "The film has been trimmed by 15 minutes, fully colour corrected, and remixed in Dolby Atmos sound."

"I've spent Rs. 50 lakh to ensure the new version gives viewers a fresh emotional experience," Cheran added, expressing gratitude to his team and fans for keeping the spirit of Autograph alive after 21 years.
